

Notice regarding Course and Section Selection Process

This is for information of all concerned that the following changes in course and section selection process during pre-registration period will be effective from Summer 2023 trimester/ Fall 2023 semester:

1. In case of pre-selected courses and sections during the pre-registration period by the students, if a student does not complete his/her registration by 9:00 AM on the first day of class, pre-selected section(s) will automatically be removed from the selection; however, the course(s) selection will remain the same.
2. Students, who do not complete registration by 9:00 AM on the first day of class, will have to complete their registration process by selecting the sections again.
